

Saturday Sale of DOESKIN GLOVES

The peer of cool, dressy summer gloves, so beautiful in texture and finish. Remember also that they wash and wear. You will want a supply at these interesting prices to-day.

Elite, 1-Button, Washable Doeskin Gloves—Made from a specially prepared white leather; or, price seams; in white only; special. $1.00

Ronsard 16-Button Doeskin Gloves—P. L. seams; in white only; a glove for street wear; special. $1.98

Elite, 1-Button, Washable Doeskin Gloves—Heavy price seams; black embroidered backs; the correct glove for tailored frocks; special. $1.50

$1 Silk Gloves 75c

16-button, double tipped Silk Gloves; choice of white or black. For to-day only.

Kaufmann & Company

Corner Fourth and Broad Streets.

Social and Personal

An interesting event of this evening will be the marriage of Miss Minnie Houston Archer, daughter of the late Edwin Sheppard Archer, and Folke Emil Sellman, of New York. The ceremony will take place at 6:30 o'clock at 508 East Franklin Street, the home of the bride's uncle, William W. Archer, and only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends will be present.

Mr. Sellman and his bride will make their home in Harrisburg, Pa., on their return from their wedding trip.

At the Country Club.

The usual hop will take place at the Country Club following dinner this evening. The club house is decorated in honeysuckle and pink roses, and a number of charming dinners will take place there this evening for the various out-of-town guests that are spending the week here. The dancing is always more or less informal, and a great many people motor to the club Saturday afternoon and remain for the hop.

Wedding of Miss Elizabeth E. Welbourn. The wedding of Miss Elizabeth E. Welbourn, daughter of Mrs. John E. Welbourn, to Lieutenant Hollis M. Cooley, U. S. N., of Ann Arbor, Mich., took place at 5 o'clock Thursday evening in Emmanuel Chapel, Baltimore, and was witnessed by members of the two families only.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, E. Hambleton Welbourn, wore a white lingerie gown and a white hat, trimmed with white lilies and pink roses. She wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Dunlop Flour

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND

The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

Dreyfus

"Specialists in Apparel for Women."

Broad at Second.

Hopkins Furniture Co.

7 West Broad St.

Cash or Credit.

A most pleasant pastime—KODAKING.

Tragle's

has a full line.

BIRTHDAY RINGS,

BRACELETS,

CAMEO BROOCHES.

Smith & Webster

805 East Main.

See Our 1913 Patterns of GO-CARTS and CARRIAGES.

Rothert & Co.

Fourth and Broad.

EAT IT THREE TIMES DAILY.

FATMOR

AT ALL GROCERS.

Shades to Order at Ryan-Smith's

Low Price Policy State

The Latest in Ice Cream and Cakes from Shepherd's New Factory

2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148

Ladies' Russian Calf Rubber Sole

Oxfords, $2.50 to $4.00.

Men's Russian Calf Rubber Sole

Oxfords, $2.50 to $3.50.

Hotheimer's

Northwest Corner Third and Broad.

her home in Staunton after a visit to the Misses Glenn.

Robert T. Ryland, of Walkerton, is the guest of friends in this city for a few days.

Mrs. D. C. Sutton, of Tappahannock, is the guest of her daughter, Miss Emma Kate Sutton, here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wilkerson, of Pittsburgh, Pa., are visiting Mrs. L. Neal on West Grace Street.

Mrs. David Dempsey, of Fredericksburg, has been the guest of relatives in this city for the past week.

Lynwood Blanton, who spent several days recently in Blackstone, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Katharine Henley, of Tappahannock, is the guest of Miss Eloise Robinson here for a week.

Mrs. J. T. Morris, of this city, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. McAlawee, in Newport News.

Miss Edna Bellamy, of Norfolk, is spending some time visiting friends in Richmond.

Master Barlow and his little daughter, Virginia, of Caroline County, spent several days in Richmond this week.

Miss Hilda Walker, who has been the guest of friends here, has returned to her home in Newport News.

Dr. C. A. Warner, of Tappahannock, is in the city for a stay of several days.

Fine Yields of German Clover. Heathsville, Va., May 31.—E. E. Harding, of Covant, this country, harvested twenty loads of fine German Clover from three and one-half acres of land. The largest yield yet reported.

Captain White, of near Heathsville. Has been the guest of Mr. J. A. Yontman, Northumberland and Lancaster counties, has taken some of it to exhibit at the State Fair.

Child Accidentally Killed. Heathsville, Va., May 31.—Roy, the six-year-old son of J. A. Yontman, near Mount Holly, was accidentally shot and killed yesterday.

Doctors Endorse

If we did not believe doctors endorsed Ayer's Cherry Food for coughs and colds, we would not offer it to you.

Sold for 70 years.

Ask Your Doctor.

V.V.'s Eyes

A NEW NOVEL BY THE AUTHOR OF "QUEED" IS NOW READY AT ALL BOOKSTORES.

Anticello Is Radio-Active

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF packing household goods and china for shipment.

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness."

Tel. Mad. 630.

THE FREED CO.

101 EAST BROAD STREET.

The House of Fashion

Bernard Frances & Co.

Broad and Fifth Sts.

Stiff Pianos

Players—the finest made, at makers' prices.

DETROIT GAS RANGES, ALASKA REFRIGERATORS, OLD HICKORY FURNITURE, SOLD ONLY BY

JURGENS

Ladies' Tan Rubber Sole

Oxfords, $2.25.

ALBERT STEIN

KING OF SHOES, Corner 5th and Broad

The first floor of SYDNOR & HUNDLEY'S is a scene of beauty in Summer Furniture and Porch and Lawn Goods; a great display also of Refrigerators.

The Velvet Kind

Same Quality Every Day.

PURITY ICE CREAM

Monroe 1861.

To-Day's Sale of Men's Wear

50c Jeans Drawers, with knitted insertion in legs; sizes 32 to 44; sale, pair. 39c

50c finest quality Balbriggan Underwear; shirts long sleeves; sale price. 39c

$2.50 Silk and Linen Shirts; sale price. $1.50

75c and $1.00 Percelle Shirts; full cut and fast colors; best of patterns; sale price 59c

Men's Section just a step inside the door. Men to wait on men.

CHARGE IS REFUTED AFTER MANY YEARS

Baron Von Hengelmüller Publishes Convincing Story of His Relations With King Milan.

BY LA MARQUESE DE FONTENAY.

ABANDONERS are at a great disadvantage when they are accused of a crime, for more especially when the attack relates to official matters, they are debared by the requirements of their calling from defending themselves.

Thus, the late Lord Pauncefote was unable to openly exculpate himself from the charge publicly made in the semi-official Berlin press to the effect that at the outset of the American war with Spain he had endeavored to unite the other foreign ambassadors in a protest against the United States in one word, had sought to originate something very much akin to a European coalition against this country.

In the newspapers intimating that his efforts in this direction had been frustrated by Germany.

Everybody in official life at Washington knew that there was not a shadow of foundation for any such accusation, and that Lord Pauncefote was the most loyal of friends of this nation throughout his career at Washington.

On one occasion Milan was in the conviction that he was threatened with insanity, that he was liable to be murdered, and that Queen Natalie, without having previously established his son on the throne, the dynasty would be driven out of the country.

These were the principal pleas which he advanced, although he also asserted that Queen Natalie had made his situation altogether intolerable, and that he was incapable of combating any longer Pan-Slav intrigues and propaganda in his dominions.

On one occasion Milan even went so far as to express his belief that the best thing for Serbia was for Austria to annex it then and there, pointing out that such a step would prove of incalculable advantage to the Serbians from an economic point of view, and Hengelmüller goes on to add that Austria had put this suggestion into execution at the time, that is to say, 1888, it would have caused less trouble than the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina in 1908, while the Balkan War, with all its concomitant evils, would have been avoided.

Hengelmüller states that it is a mistake to believe that Mme. Crisziel, Milan's fascinating Levantine favorite—the wife of his private secretary—had any share in bringing about the abdication. The baron refrains from mentioning her by name, but insisted that she did everything in her power to prevent it, for her own sake.

In conclusion, the baron declared that at the close of each of his almost daily arguments with Milan against the latter's abdication, the King would reply, "Mais ce que vous pouvez me dire, je le me dis moi-même. Et bien tout ce la m'est égal, je suis fini, et je m'en vais." (All that you can say to me, I myself say to myself. Well, it is all the same to me; I am at an end, and I am going.)

Hengelmüller's comment in his letter being that the King's nerves were gone, and that he was no longer in his right mind.

If I have given here at such length the story of Milan's story, it is because he certainly deserves reparation for the calumny under which he has so long rested. During his near twenty years' stay in the United States, he made many friends, and in parts of the country, who will be interested to read of his convincing and interesting story of Milan's hitherto mysterious abdication of his throne.

Hengelmüller's services throughout his long diplomatic career have been recognized by his government in the best shown by the action of the Emperor in bestowing upon him shortly after his retirement the brilliant star of the order of Leopold—an exceptional distinction.

(Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood Company.)

No Need Being Old or Wrinkled Before 75

Lillian Russell says any woman who wrinkles before she is 75 is herself responsible for them. Sunshine and fresh air she considers more valuable as complexion preservers than cosmetics.

The chief objection to cosmetics is that they do not last. There are certainly true aids to Nature, which may be applied with directly opposite effect. Ordinarily, the face is covered with a thin, scaly, peeling off of the worst sort of skin. Just one once, procurable at the store, will remove the scaly skin entirely new and natural complexion, with an exquisite girlish color. Of course, the face is covered with pimples, freckles, fine lines, moth patches, liver spots, disappear with the disappearance of the scaly skin.

To prevent or remove wrinkles, a face bath, which also produces natural results, is made by dissolving an ounce of Eucalypti Extract in a half pint of water. This is immediately effective, and gives no untoward after-effects.—Advertisement.

Several Pine Tables and Counters for sale; good condition; reasonable prices.

J. B. Mosby & Co.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges

—AT—

PETTIT & CO.'S?

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET

MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

Use Pratt's Astral Oil for Incubators.

N. Klein & Son, Inc.

3 East Broad.

Men's Section just a step inside the door. Men to wait on men.

Men's Section just a step inside the door. Men to wait on men.

$1.25 White and Fancy Stripe Madras Pajamas; sale price. 98c

Hole-Proof Hosiery for men, 6 pair guaranteed to wear 6 months, per box. $1.50

Phoenix Guaranteed Silk Hose, 4 pair warranted to wear 3 months, per box $2.00

39c Check Muslin Underwear; drawers knee length, per pair 39c

First Virginia High School Outside of Cities Ends Successful Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Palmyra, Va., May 30.—The Palmyra Normal High School commencement began with the baccalaureate sermon preached by Rev. J. G. Lavender, of Fork Union, to a large crowd in the Methodist Church at Palmyra on last Sunday. His subject was "Know the Truth, and his sermon eloquent and inspiring.

On Monday evening an interesting program of entertainment was arranged by the pupils of the school. The infant class was represented in a Tom Thumb wedding, with Amy Sloan as bride, James Browne as groom, Stella Wood, maid of honor, William Conrad, groomsmen; O. B. Thomas, priest; ushers, bridesmaids, flower girls and guests.

The Grammar Grade gave Hiawatha in pantomime, and a well rendered amusing play was given by the senior class. Those taking part in it were Misses Lottie Shepherd, Mattie Smith, Helen Mills, Marjorie Haden, Gladys Word, Gladys Whitton, Nellie Wingfield, Messrs. Hugh Sadler, Jack Willis, Harry Haden, Malcolm Wynn, Rossar Johnson and John H. Haden.

Tuesday evening a musical program was given under the direction of the music teacher, Miss Anne Brown, and an interesting feature of the evening was the "class exercises," an address by the president, Miss Cora B. Willis; "History of Class, 1913," Miss Margaret Thompson; "Leaves From a Senior's Diary," Willie Haden; "Lakes and Lakes," Class 1913; prophecy, Miss Elise Ryals; poem, Miss Cora B. Willis; "Last Will and Testament," Miss Kate Talley; song, "High School Days," Class 1913.

The Wednesday evening program, which was given before a large audience, reflected much credit upon the teachers and pupils alike. It was as follows: prayer, Rev. J. G. Lavender; chorus, "Vacation Song," salutatory, essay, "Silent Influence," Miss Cora B. Willis; essay, "There Shall Be No Alps," Willie Haden; "The Alps," Class 1913; song, "High School Days," Class 1913.

With the "Lark" essay, "Dreams and Realities," Willie C. Haden; essay, "Unwritten Language," Elise Ryals; chorus, "Call of Summer," announcements by the principal, Mr. J. H. Shepherd, division superintendent; address, J. B. Terrell, inspector of high schools; presentation of diplomas; essay and value, "The Alps," Class 1913; song, "High School Days," Class 1913.

The school, under Professor Willis as principal, corps of teachers, is doing fine work. The historical reputation Palmyra has always been proud to boast of. The first high school in Virginia, outside of the cities, was founded here in 1862, when Judge James C. Shepherd was divided superintendent. The school has always been well sustained, and sent out many young men and women of whom the county may well be proud.

Southern Educational Congress held in Richmond in April the exhibit from the Palmyra school was said to be the best displayed.

SUPREME COURT AT WYTHEVILLE.

Will Open Session on Tuesday With Small Docket.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wytheville, Va., May 31.—The Supreme Court of Appeals will open its session on Tuesday, with a comparatively small docket, only thirty-three cases.

The city schools closed their formal work to-day, the last day of examinations, the commencement exercises beginning Monday.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the auditorium by Dr. Keister, of Roanoke.

ASHLAND NEWS NOTES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Ashland, Va., May 30.—The historical evening given by the Hanover Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, on Thursday in the home of Mrs. Aubrey, at Wytheville, was a most delightful affair. An unusually large number of members were present. Mesdames Norman Randolph and Samuel Williams, of Richmond, gave interesting talks, and a quartet composed of Mrs. M. M. Shepherd, Frances Lou Carter, Messrs. Walter Sydney, Jr., and Thomas Bruce, sang songs. Father Ryan's poem, "The Land Without Ruins" was read by Mrs. R. B. Smithy in a most pleasing manner. Mrs. Marsh, of Gwathmey, added to the enjoyment of the evening by giving personal reminiscences of the war times in Natchez, Miss.

"The presentation of crosses of honor, which was to have been held on June 3 in the college chapel has been called off by the fact that many of the veterans could not be present. The crosses will be sent to them at their homes. Mesdames Norman Randolph, E. W. Williams, of Richmond; Martin Williams, of Southwest Virginia, were members of the chapter. At the conclusion of the program, the hosts, Mrs. Hunt, served delicious refreshments.

Ernest Stevens was in town on Thursday as the guest of Dr. Stokes.

Miss Marion Montague is visiting Mrs. Luther P. Hartsook.

Mrs. Anna Carr entertained the Mattie Eicher Card Club on Wednesday. Miss Ida Simms, of Lawrenceville, assisted the hosts in serving a delightful salad course. The guest's prize was won by Miss Julia Weisiger, and the cash prize Mrs. C. E. Sevens.

Misses Virginia Potts and Birdie DeJarnette have returned to their homes here from the Southern Seminary, Petersburg.

Mrs. J. L. Moss and children are visiting relatives in Newport News.

Charles Chenery, of Washington, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Chenery.

Mrs. L. E. W. Mayberg has returned from a visit to friends in Bowling Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tucker, Jr., will leave on Monday for Walkerton, where they will spend a week.

Richeson—Johnston.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bedford City, Va., May 30.—Rarely in the history of Bedford City has there been an event of more interest than that which crowded the auditorium of the Methodist Church last evening, when the bride, Mary Guy Johnston, became the bride of Frank St. Clair Richeson, of Richmond.

The church was elaborately decorated with potted plants and cut flowers, the color scheme being white and green.

After the guests were assembled, Mrs. F. O. Thomas sang "Call Me Home," with a violin obligato by Miss Irvine Guy, and accompanied by Miss Irvine Guy, and accompanied by Miss Irvine Guy.

Upon the arrival of the bride party, Mrs. William Dent sang "All for You," by H. H. Haden.

When the strains of the "Lohengrin" "Bridal Chorus" sounded, Misses Mary Grey and Hilda Haden came through the doors at each side of the pulpit, met at the top of the centre aisle, opening the floral gates for the reception of the bride, uniting the white ribbons

FINAL EXERCISES AT PALMYRA

First Virginia High School Outside of Cities Ends Successful Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Palmyra, Va., May 30.—The Palmyra Normal High School commencement began with the baccalaureate sermon preached by Rev. J. G. Lavender, of Fork Union, to a large crowd in the Methodist Church at Palmyra on last Sunday. His subject was "Know the Truth, and his sermon eloquent and inspiring.

On Monday evening an interesting program of entertainment was arranged by the pupils of the school. The infant class was represented in a Tom Thumb wedding, with Amy Sloan as bride, James Browne as groom, Stella Wood, maid of honor, William Conrad, groomsmen; O. B. Thomas, priest; ushers, bridesmaids, flower girls and guests.

The Grammar Grade gave Hiawatha in pantomime, and a well rendered amusing play was given by the senior class. Those taking part in it were Misses Lottie Shepherd, Mattie Smith, Helen Mills, Marjorie Haden, Gladys Word, Gladys Whitton, Nellie Wingfield, Messrs. Hugh Sadler, Jack Willis, Harry Haden, Malcolm Wynn, Rossar Johnson and John H. Haden.

Tuesday evening a musical program was given under the direction of the music teacher, Miss Anne Brown, and an interesting feature of the evening was the "class exercises," an address by the president, Miss Cora B. Willis; "History of Class, 1913," Miss Margaret Thompson; "Leaves From a Senior's Diary," Willie Haden; "Lakes and Lakes," Class 1913; prophecy, Miss Elise Ryals; poem, Miss Cora B. Willis; "Last Will and Testament," Miss Kate Talley; song, "High School Days," Class 1913.

With the "Lark" essay, "Dreams and Realities," Willie C. Haden; essay, "Unwritten Language," Elise Ryals; chorus, "Call of Summer," announcements by the principal, Mr. J. H. Shepherd, division superintendent; address, J. B. Terrell, inspector of high schools; presentation of diplomas; essay and value, "The Alps," Class 1913; song, "High School Days," Class 1913.

The school, under Professor Willis as principal, corps of teachers, is doing fine work. The historical reputation Palmyra has always been proud to boast of. The first high school in Virginia, outside of the cities, was founded here in 1862, when Judge James C. Shepherd was divided superintendent. The school has always been well sustained, and sent out many young men and women of whom the county may well be proud.

Southern Educational Congress held in Richmond in April the exhibit from the Palmyra school was said to be the best displayed.

SUPREME COURT AT WYTHEVILLE.

Will Open Session on Tuesday With Small Docket.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wytheville, Va., May 31.—The Supreme Court of Appeals will open its session on Tuesday, with a comparatively small docket, only thirty-three cases.

The city schools closed their formal work to-day, the last day of examinations, the commencement exercises beginning Monday.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the auditorium by Dr. Keister, of Roanoke.

ASHLAND NEWS NOTES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Ashland, Va., May 30.—The historical evening given by the Hanover Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, on Thursday in the home of Mrs. Aubrey, at Wytheville, was a most delightful affair. An unusually large number of members were present. Mesdames Norman Randolph and Samuel Williams, of Richmond, gave interesting talks, and a quartet composed of Mrs. M. M. Shepherd, Frances Lou Carter, Messrs. Walter Sydney, Jr., and Thomas Bruce, sang songs. Father Ryan's poem, "The Land Without Ruins" was read by Mrs. R. B. Smithy in a most pleasing manner. Mrs. Marsh, of Gwathmey, added to the enjoyment of the evening by giving personal reminiscences of the war times in Natchez, Miss.

"The presentation of crosses of honor, which was to have been held on June 3 in the college chapel has been called off by the fact that many of the veterans could not be present. The crosses will be sent to them at their homes. Mesdames Norman Randolph, E. W. Williams, of Richmond; Martin Williams, of Southwest Virginia, were members of the chapter. At the conclusion of the program, the hosts, Mrs. Hunt, served delicious refreshments.

Ernest Stevens was in town on Thursday as the guest of Dr. Stokes.

Miss Marion Montague is visiting Mrs. Luther P. Hart